HOGE AND MURPHY ARRESTED.

The Crop Report—Breaking the Four-Oared Record—California
Fruit Prices.

More Conspirators Arrested

CHICAGO, July 10.—Chairman Hoge, of the Burlington grievances committee of the Brotherhood of Engineers, and Chairman Murphy, occupying the same position in the Firemen's Brotherhood, were arrested this morning and locked up at the armory police station. The prisoners were taken completely by surprise. The two chiefs were charged with conspiracy. The much-talked-of circular in which Hoge is alleged to have requested the Brotherhood men to hire themselves secretly to the "Q" road, and then disable engines, is said to be the basis of the charge against Hoge. Chairman Murphy is charged with being an accomplice. General Manager Stone, of the Burlington, swore out the warrants last night, and they were given to the officers to be served early this morning. Attorney Collier, of the "Q" road, said this morning that the prisoners would be arraigned before a justice, and a continuance taken, as the company was not yet ready to push its case. He asserted, however, that the evidence in possession of the company was conclusive.

Hoge and Murphy were taken before Justice White, but asked for a change of venue. Upon the prisoners being brought to Justice Lyon, the railroad attorneys demanded a continuance. The justice was about to fix the bail at $1,000 apiece, when the company's lawyers protested, and after some parley the amount was increased to $1,500 for each of the men. Bonds were promptly furnished, and Messrs. Hoge and Murphy were promptly released until Saturday. Unlike the other strikers, they are arraigned under the State and not the Federal statutes. Their arrest was made under the recently enacted Merritt conspiracy law. If convicted, the penalty is a term at hard labor in the Penitentiary. Two other names were on the list with Hoge and Murphy for arrest, John J. Kelly and John H. McGilivray. The warrant for Hoge and Murphy was placed in the hands of Inspector Bonfield and turned over by him to two of his officers. It was shortly after 6 a. m. when the officers proceeded to the National Hotel where Hoge and his wife, Murphy and several other Brotherhood officials are stopping. The officers were posted and needed to ask no questions before going to the room of the men they wanted. One went to Hoge's door and rapped. There was no response and the knock was repeated in a more energetic manner. This roused Hoge, who opened the door. "What is wanted?" he asked.

"Mr. Hoge," was the reply.
"That's my name."
"Then I have a warrant for your arrest," said the officer.
"All right; I'll be with you in a moment," Hoge expressed no surprise, but hastily dressed himself and joined the officer in the hall. In the meantime the other officer had gone to the room which he knew was occupied by Murphy, who came to the door in response to his rap. Murphy was very drowsy, and had evidently had little sleep. "Whose room is this?" asked the officer.

"Charles Thomas'" was the reply.
"I thought Murphy occupied it."
"Well, so he does; that's my name, but unless your business is of great importance, I am too tired to talk now."

"But it is of importance. I have a warrant for your arrest."
Murphy was awake. His face grew pale as the night robe he wore. He staggered back and grasped the door frame for support.

"A warrant!" he gasped. "What for, for God's sake?"
"It charges you with conspiracy against the C. B. & Q. road," and the warrant was read to him. Murphy dressed himself slowly. He was too nervous to proceed leisurely as did Hoge. A light alpaca coat and vest and straw hat completed his attire, and he shivered as he went out into the chill morning air. Hoge spoke to him cheerfully, but Murphy was not in a mood to respond, and little was said until the two were placed in cells behind the prison bars. A midnight consultation of officers of the company led to the arrest. Two or three detectives, Manager Stone, Freight Agent Paul Morton and Collier were working all night on the evidence against the alleged conspirators, and it was not until an early hour this morning that they decided to arrest Hoge and Murphy. When the little party broke up, warrants were provided, and the officials retired for a few hours' rest. Then they arose to watch the result of their work.

"Well, we've landed our men," said Morton to a reporter soon after the announcement of the arrests was made. "What do these arrests signify?"
"They mean that Hoge and Murphy have been arrested for criminal conspiracy in connection with the circular, and I think we can prove that the circular came from them."

"This case," said Attorney Collier, "grows out of the circulars that are sent out to Brotherhood lodges, asking that Brotherhood men be sent on to take places on the 'Q,' and suggesting that they bring a good supply of sal soda and emery with them. The sending of these circulars is deemed prima facie evidence of a share in the concerted conspiracy, and we have a sure case against the prisoners."

"Then they are not to be arraigned for the dynamite alleged to have been found in Hoge's room at the Grand Pacific?"

"Well, we will not at present charge them with direct implication in that," McGillivray and Kelly, who were to be arrested with Hoge and Murphy are strikers who have been acting as clerks for Hoge, their occupation was to assist in the preparation of circulars to various branches of the Brotherhood.

The Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The Department of Agriculture crop report shows the condition of winter wheat has advanced from 73.3 to 75.6, and of spring wheat from 93.3 to 95.1. The area of corn reported has increased over 4 per cent.

The Department of Agriculture makes the July general average condition as follows: Winter wheat, 75.8; spring wheat, 95; corn, 93; oats, 85.2; barley, 91. Winter wheat has been harvested in the south and yielded below expectation in the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama. It has improved slightly in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. A marked improvement is noted in Michigan. Reports from the Pacific Coast are also more favorable. The general condition has advanced from 73.3 to 75.6. Averages in the principal States: New York, 98; Pennsylvania, 93; Ohio, 60; Michigan, 75; Indiana, 62; Illinois, 68; Missouri, 72; Kansas, 53; California, 83. Spring wheat has improved in the larger portion of the breadth seeded, and promises a large yield, minus possible future drawbacks. The general average has advanced from 92.8 to 95.9. State averages: Wisconsin, 91; Minnesota, 94; Iowa, 97; Nebraska, 95; Dakota, 98. The area of corn has increased over 4 per cent, making the breadth nearly 75,000,000 acres. There has been much replanting in wet districts, from non-germination, and from destruction by worms. The stand is now moderately good, and the crop is growing finely. Condition by principal States: Ohio, 96; Indiana, 95; Illinois, 99; Iowa, 98; Missouri, 92; Kansas, 99; Nebraska, 91. The European report for July makes the wheat crop late and unpromising throughout Europe, Russia excepted.
